FOR THE SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF THE

SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY TRANSPORT WORKERS UNION LOCAL 234 2014 SUMMER CAREER TRAINING PROGRAM

SUPPORTED BY
PHILADELPHIA ACADEMIES, INC.
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA
KEYSTONE DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP
TRANSPORTATION LEARNING CENTER

Students completed at least two years of study at their Philadelphia Career and Technical Education High Schools before they submitted applications to SEPTA through the established process on-line. Students who met the academic criteria were recommended by their teachers and then endorsed by Philadelphia Academies before they were interviewed by SEPTA. Students completed the 8 week program from June 30 through August 22, 2014.

Students worked 8-hour days, 5 days per week, from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m. Students were not allowed to be absent or late more than 3 times to complete the program. Students received on the job training for public transit vehicle maintenance. A TWU mentor was assigned for each student as they worked beside mechanics on Bus and Rail Vehicles. Each student was encouraged to keep a journal of their experiences.
